1. ABOUT US

The Lorraine Khoza Foundation (LKF) is a dynamic non-profit organisation aimed at providing specialised support services and creating effective, efficient and coordinated community-based approaches, addressing the root causes of Gender-Based Violence and inequalities. The organisation was founded out of the increasingly rising need for a dedicated and caring organisation for victims & survivors of gender-based violence, particularly those in the rural communities greatly affected due to limited response, intervention and prevention measures. In its various forms, abuse has cemented its oppressive presence in many of our lives because the voice against abuse & gender-based violence needs to find its power.

2. VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

Vision

To build and strive for a safer and Gender-Based Violence - free society, one where women and children can live freely without the fear of being violated. To be a reliable advocate for the marginalised groups in society championing equal gender rights and empowering opportunities

Mission

Our primary and foremost purpose of existence is to assist victims of Gender-Based Violence with social services as well as intervention and prevention initiatives prioritising disadvantaged communities, mostly townships and rural areas.

3. CORE VALUES
